

Six Degrees of Separation – Contextualization

Directions: This assignment has one major overriding concept/learning objective, in the blank spaces below you will write six events relevant to the concept/objective. The events should also be relevant to the two provided “end point” events and should be listed in chronological order. After completing the task, write a brief statement (full sentences) that explains the relationship of the events to the concept/objective.

OBJECTIVE:

CUL-4 Analyze how changing religious ideals, Enlightenment beliefs, and republican thought shaped politics, culture, and society of the colonial era through the early republic.

